Academic Decathlon	jforte@pthsd.net	Jaclyn Bevacqua & Jackie Forte	Academic Decathlon (AcDec) is a competitive team that competes at the regional, state, and possibly national level each year. The team competes in 10 subject areas: Language & Literature, Math, Social Studies, Economics, Science, Art, Music, Essay, Speech, and Interview. This year's topic is The Cold War. Study sessions are held after school on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and sometimes on Sundays. Last year, PHHS was invited to compete at the National Competition in Anchorage, Alaska, before the event was cancelled due to the global pandemic.
African-American Culture Club	jrwooster@pthsd.net	Jason Wooster	The purpose of the African-American Culture Club is to explore and embrace the shared heritage and experiences of our Black/African-American students at PHHS. Our goal is to offer all PHHS students with educational, social, and service opportunities that facilitate cultural enrichment and intellectual growth. Each meeting provides a safe space to discuss past and present race-related issues in the United States, with an emphasis on the Black/African-American experience. We hope to establish and maintain a community that empowers all students to reach their full potential while promoting solidarity within and beyond the classroom.
Anime	cemulroy@pthsd.net	Cristy Mulroy	The Anime Club is a common interest student run organization with a focus on Japanese Anime artwork, shows and culture. The Anime Club attracts students of all ages and backgrounds and offers a platform for camaraderie, open and objective discussion, along with the choice of viewing democratically chosen shows.
Asian American Club	czsanchez@pthsd.net	Carolina Sanchez	AAC meets once per week to celebrate Asian culture, to support one another in academic and community service endeavors and to plan events. We play games, work on schoolwork and sometimes dance to KPop music. We welcome new members and invite Asians (or Asians at heart) to come out and socialize with us.
Class of 2022 Steering	kljohnson@pthsd.net	Ms. Albert/ Mrs. Johnson	This club is responsible for fundraising and planning of the Class of 2022 activities. We run the Jr and Sr proms, as well as any fundraising activities in preparation like clothing sales, restaurant, and catalog fundraisers.
Class of 2024 Steering Club	child@pthsd.net	Mrs. Hild and Mrs. Ramsden	The students of Class of 2024 work together to fundraise for Junior and Senior Prom. Since the members are all part of the Class of 2024, the club builds class unity through their events.

ERASE	kdotter@pthsd.net	Kari Dotter & Steve Bechtler	ERASE stands for Ending Racism and Sexism Everywhere. Too often in today's society, popularity or power is determined by the color of your skin and a level of respect depends on whether you are a male or female. This club is determined to help the community by hosting events to fundraise and donate to worthy causes, as well as, spread the word and actions of leadership skills that will help to stop racism and sexism everywhere.
Fencing	dengh@pthsd.net	David Engh	The fencing club offers students the opportunity to practice the art of fencing. We teach the fundamentals of the sport and allow students to eventually specialize in foil, epee, and/or saber. No experience is required, and equipment can be provided. As a club, our activities are limited to the school, so we do not fence other schools or teams.
French Club	ssteinberg@pthsd.net	Sheila Steinberg	French club is for anyone who enjoys the French culture and who would like to promote the French language. We have activities such as café night, or a movie night to fundraise for the French organization Doctors without Borders. We also organize outings to French themed cultural events that are going on in the NY/NJ area. To promote the language we have outreach programs to our elementary schools where our students teach the elementary classes about the French language and culture.
Green Team	srosendahl@pthsd.net	Sabrina Rosendahl	The GreenTeam is an environmental club whose goal is to raise awareness about environmental issues. We strive to instill a sense of responsibility for the environment and a personal commitment to protect and preserve it. We have over 50 students in our club and we meet every other Tuesday. We work on a variety of community projects such as the Equilibrium project for climate change, Bye Bye Plastic Bags to ban single use plastics, and Slam Dunk the Junk to keep our area litter free. Come join us in making a difference today and for our future! All new members are welcomed!
GSA	sbarrett@pthsd.net	Mrs. Barrett	GSA is to an open safe space for members or ally's of the LGBTQ+ community. We generally meet on Mondays after school at 2:30. We encourage people to stop by and try it out. We welcome all who are curious.

Habitat for Humanity	lmensing@pthsd.net	Lauren Mensing & Kimberly Wall	Habitat for Humanity is a group of students who are passionate about helping people build better lives for themselves, and are ready to take the next step to lead the charge at their school to help fulfill Habitat's mission. Each chapter is a student-led, student-initiated organization that partners with the local Habitat for Humanity to volunteer on new home construction, rehabilitation, rehab, neighborhood revitalization, ReStore and office tasks. This includes helping set up volunteer opportunities, educating your school and community around issues related to housing and Habitat, fundraising in your local area to support more housing opportunities, and speaking with your community officials to prioritize shelter. In addition, chapters raise funds to support the work of their local Habitat for Humanity and Habitat for Humanity International.
Indian Culture Club	ekjala@pthsd.net	Ellesa Jala, Vishakha Desai	Student-Led group based on teaching and learning traditional Indian Dances with a modern twist. There is a performance at the end of the year where students get to perform a show including the dances, grade specific dances, and a skit. The club is open to all students!
Inflow Art & Literary Magazine	mherzenberg@pthsd.net	Mrs. Krehel & Mr. Herzenberg	If you like creating art of any kind, photography or writing poetry, songs, short stories, then this is the club for you! The Inkflow Art &amp; Literary Magazine is a club that fosters student creativity and collaboration, culminating in a professional magazine/book created and published by the students for everyone. The club is extremely welcoming and most of the time we spend in meetings is either in an art/writing workshop style or working on the layout and creation of our yearly publication. We usually have two events per year. One is our Coffeehouse Night where students read poetry, perform songs and display their art. The other is our end of year Inkflow Release Party where we celebrate our completed work. It's a wonderful club and we create art that will last forever, come join us!
Instrumental Chamber Ensembles	mlchristianson@pthsd.net	Ms. Christianson & Mr. Iapicca	Each spring, the musicians of PHHS form Chamber Ensembles for our Jazz & Small Ensembles Concert. These change each year depending on demand and include: Flute Ensemble, Clarinet Choir, Saxophone Ensemble, Brass Ensemble, Trumpet Choir, Percussion Ensemble, Double Reed Quartet and String Quartet. Chamber Ensembles are open to any PHHS student who is an instrumentalist studying in the area of the given chamber ensemble. The groups meet after school for 45 minutes once a week from April-June. Groups perform pieces from different eras and genres. So bring your instrument and join a PHHS Chamber Ensemble!

Interact	kdotter@pthsd.net	Kari Dotter & Sabrina Rosendahl	Interact is a service oriented club that is sponsored by the Parsippany Rotary Club. Our students are committed to participate in numerous activities (such as canned food drives, Veteran's Day activities, Big Brothers/Big Sisters and so much more) to aid the local and national community.
JSA (Junior State of America)	mypadone@pthsd.net	Mary Claire Spadone	The Junior State of America (JSA) is an organization run by students who are interested in what happens around them - from politics, to how government works, and contributing to their community. JSA serves as a place where students build leadership skills, learn civil debate, and strengthen their engagement through volunteering and activism. Students organize their own debates and create mock legislative laws and bills.
Key Club	kebushong@pthsd.net	Kristine Bushong	Key Club is an international, student-led organization that provides its members with opportunities to provide service, build character and develop leadership. Key Club is dedicated to bettering our home, school, and community through service projects, fundraising, and community service. There are requirements that must be completed at the beginning of the year to be eligible for membership in Key Club.
Library Pages	mypadone@pthsd.net	Mary Claire Spadone, Kendra Calabria	The Library Pages club is dedicated to the love of books and the library. We work together to create displays that highlight connections between current events, our books, and the student body. The students are given the opportunity to assist with day to day library tasks. This hands-on experience allows students the opportunity to assist with collection development and customer service. Library Pages members participate in book clubs and book talks that allows us the opportunity to share books with each other and the entire school.
Lip Dub	jbrosnan@pthsd.net	Jessica Brosnan and Andrew Nicholes	The Lip Dub is a senior led music video that highlights not only the clubs and sports teams at the Hills, but also the faculty and staff who teach here. Each year a theme/concept is decided upon and a corresponding soundtrack crafted. Student groups then take their assigned section of the soundtrack and "choreograph" it so that it highlights the focus and strengths of their group. Though the lead lip-syncer of each scene is a senior, the entirety of the club/team is present to help with the scene "choreography." The final music video is then edited by students in our TV Production program and the final result is released to the community so that they can also view our Viking Pride.

Math Team/Mu Alpha Theta Honor Society	cdriscoll@pthsd.net	Eric Berkowitz and Catherine Driscoll	Students who are interested and excited about mathematical challenges and problem solving meet throughout the year to compete in contests at the local, state, and national level. Many team participants are also members of Mu Alpha Theta, the Math Honor Society at PHHS. These members have shown excellence in their class performance, regular participation in team events, and a commitment to tutoring their fellow students.
National Art Honor Society	rkrehel@pthsd.net	Rachael Krehel	The Parsippany Hills High School chapter of the National Art Honor Society (NAHS) magnifies the innovation, skills, and scholarship of our school's art students. The NAHS program serves as a means to inspire and recognize students who have an outstanding ability and interest in art. It strives to aid members in attaining the highest standards in art scholarship, character & service, all while heightening art education and appreciation within our school and community.
National English Honor Society	lmensing@pthsd.net	Lauren Mensing & William Kadar	The National English Honor Society (NEHS), founded and sponsored by Sigma Tau Delta, is the only international organization exclusively for secondary students who, in the field of English, merit special note for past and current accomplishments. Benefits of affiliation include academic recognition, scholarship and award eligibility, and opportunities for networking with others who share an enthusiasm for, and accomplishment in, the language arts. The NEHS motto, "gelast sceal mid are," is Old English for: "duty goes with honor." The motto represents one of the earliest forms of our language—it affirms and celebrates an obligation to use one's gifts in service to others. Service to peers, school, and community is part and parcel of the NEHS mission—and, indeed, in the grammatical structure of the Old English phrase, "duty" actually precedes "honor." The Vikings chapter of the NEHS was established in 2019.
Pit Orchestra	mlchristianson@pthsd.net	Ms. Christianson	PHHS Pit Orchestra is an auditioned ensemble of instrumentalists who provide live music for the PHHS Spring Musical! Auditions consist of prepared excerpts/sightreading and are held in December. Students who meet rigorous standards are accepted as per the necessary instrumentation of the show each year. Pit Orchestra rehearses after school from January-March. If you love playing your instrument in every key, tempo and style, if you're up for the unique challenges of working together to put on a live musical... audition for Pit Orchestra!

PLAC- Peer Leadership	srosendahl@pthsd.net	Sabrina Rosendahl and Erica Pizza	The Parsippany Hills High School Peer Leaders Activity Club (PLAC) consists of students in grades 11-12. This club is geared towards helping students, especially freshman, with their transition into high school and their adolescent years. Our biggest event is Freshman Activity Day, a day when all freshmen are excused from their classes to participate in various leadership and trust building games and discussions with selected peer leaders. The objective of the day is to encourage freshman to feel more comfortable with their new high school lives, as well as to get acquainted with some upper classmen. Students must go through an intense application and interview process to become a peer leader, as well as attend meetings and training sessions in order to be involved in the activities. The slogan we live by is PLAC... We Got Your Back!
Red Cross Club	alscioscia@pthsd.net Google classroom code: w4vcth3	Mrs. Jelonek & Mrs. Scioscia	The Parsippany Hills Red Cross Chapter seeks to encourage student volunteering and fundraise for relief and Red Cross efforts. We currently have 70 members and would love to see new faces! The Red Cross is widely recognized for their humanitarian efforts and we hope to aid however we can in our school chapter. Some of our events include Totes for Hope, raffles, cards for veterans, and organizing donation drives for those in need. If you would like to earn volunteer hours and be a part of a bigger cause, join our club!
Renaissance	kdaly@pthsd.net	Daly	Selecting Student of the Month and ShopRite Stars. We also put on the Bagel Breakfast at the end of the school year
Robotics chipwrecked Vikings	megarcia@pthsd.net	Marco Garcia	To promote and incorporate the rising competition of robotics. Students work together in order to build a robot that functions and is able to move blocks. Students then receive points of the blocks they move.
Science League	crmann@pthsd.net	Mrs. Mann	If you're a lover of science and enjoy the challenge of standardized tests, then this is the club for you! (alright...let's emphasize "lover of science" part and move past the "exam" part!) PHHS competes against other NJ high schools to see who can score the highest on exams offered in January, February, March and April. There is something for everyone (freshmen through seniors), as 8 tests are administered each month: Biology, AP Biology, Chemistry, AP Chemistry, Physics, AP Physics, Earth Science, and Environmental Science. Sorry, you can't take all 8 in one year; you'll have to choose your favorite. And no, your scores will not directly affect your GPA, but academic competitions are ALWAYS fun! For more information, please join our Classroom with code n6up7ec

Science Olympiad	dwwolckenhauer@pthsd.net	David Wolckenhauer	Like to show off your science skills? Science Olympiad is a science and engineering competition, usually held regionally in January, where students from around the State compete in testing, laboratory, and engineering events. Join us to collaborate, construct and socialize with other students with a passion for science!
Ski Club	panzelone@pthsd.net	Mr. Anzelone	PHHS Ski Club is for those that love to hit the slopes either skiing or snowboarding. This year's ski club will be skiing/riding at Mountain Creek. Joining the ski club is a great way to make new friends, socialize, and get a workout on the slopes. Think snow!
Spanish Club	sidebari@pthsd.net	Sydney DeBari	The Spanish Club is an environment outside of the classroom where those who have a passion for Spanish-speaking culture can get together, participate in activities and meet other like-minded students. Additionally, the club honors the importance of helping the community by participating in community service projects. This club is student-led, providing students with the chance to develop their leadership skills and make a difference in their community.
Spanish Honor Society	sidebari@pthsd.net	Sydney DeBari	The SHH (La Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica) is an honor society for high school students enrolled in Spanish and/or Portuguese, sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese (AATSP). Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica recognizes high school achievement in Spanish and Portuguese and to promote interest in Hispanic studies. Any student who has maintained an honor average in the study of Spanish for a minimum of two years and is in the 11th grade or higher is eligible to be a member of SHH. SHH is an honor society for those students of high academic achievement.
Student Council		Elizabeth Mejia & Catherine Driscoll	Student Council is a wonderful program where YOU get to decide how the many events at our school run. We are the "behind the scenes" people when it comes to the school events you know and love. Whether its spirit weeks, pep rallies (covid permitting), or senior superlatives, the student council is always there making sure the event is the best it can be. We also work with many charities and nonprofit organizations such as our State Charity, Emmanuel Cancer Foundation and the Battered Women's shelter with our Toy Drive. Participation in this club is a great way to earn both leadership and community service hours, as well as being a great way to give back to our school community. If you want to make your high school years the best they can be in PHHS, join the student council family. We would love to have you! Please contact Mrs. Mejia or Mrs. Driscoll for more information.

Tri-M Music Honor Society	mlchristianson@pthsd.net	Ms. Christianson	The Tri-M Music Honor Society is a National Honor Society for high achieving music students. It is a program of the National Association for Music Education. The PHHS Chapter of Tri-M is open to eligible students in grades 11-12. The purpose of this club is to serve our peers, our school, our district and our community through the use of our musical gifts. Tri-M can be seen helping in PTHSD from our elementary schools (Music Buddies) to Brooklawn (mock auditions) and of course our very own PHHS (concert, hosting, volunteering). Students inducted into Tri-M meet rigorous standards academically, musically, and as leaders amongst their peers. Our goal is to help in our school and community anywhere there is music, to lift up ourselves and others, and to make the world a more beautiful, understanding, and connected place through the use of music.
